Blue! Blue! Eight Shades of the Scarce Blue in $1.69 Yard-Wide Colored

CHIFFON TAFFETA, $1.24 Yd.

Enterprise! That's the watchword of the store—and here's a striking example of it. In the face of the world-wide color famine we've secured this beautiful Pure Silk Chiffon Taffeta, in the scarcest of all the wanted blues—as well as in lavender, pink, gray and wistaria. What's more, we offer it at an amazing bargain price. You'll not find such a superb weave of taffeta elsewhere. ANY COLOR for less than $1.69—let alone the scarce shades. Here's the blue list:

FRENCH ARMY BLUE, LARABOT BLUE, NORMANDY BLUE, TWILIGHT BLUE, NAVY BLUE, COPENHAGEN BLUE, KING OF BLUE, LIGHT BLUE.

$1.00 Yard-Wide SILK POPLIN 69c

It's poplin for suits, poplin for dresses and tomorrow we price a high-grade faille weave of silk poplin much below its worth. In light blue, pink, battleship gray, wistaria, navy, old rose, Belgian, mahogany, tan, black and white.

VIRGINIA REPUBLICANS START CAMPAIGN PLANS

Special Dispatch to The Star.
RICHMOND, Va., April 1.—Republicans are showing signs of activity in the congressional fight for the coming fall. So far there are two candidates nominated in opposition to the democrats—W. R. Vawter of the third, in opposition to Representative Montague, and Robert H. Angell, in the sixth, who is seeking to succeed Representative Glass. There is no question of the election of Representative Sloop, the lone republican from Virginia. It is understood that State Senator Beverly A. Davis of Franklin will be named to oppose Representative Saunders in the fifth, and it is also expected that the democrats will name Delegate O. E. Jordan of Pulaski to oppose Representative Sloop.

In the Norfolk section, the second district, candidates for the nomination are plentiful. Former Representative William A. Young, former Representative H. L. Maynard, Representative E. E. Holland, Col. J. Peter Holland, Col. George C. Cabell and others are being mentioned for the race, with all but the latter regarded as being in the contest at this time.

Friends of Senator Walter R. Mapp of the first district are urging him to stand for the democratic nomination. He is the man who had charge of the prohibition bill in the upper branch of the legislature and who put it through practically as it was drawn. He has made no statement regarding his intentions in the matter, but it is known that he has congressional aspirations. He is a man of considerable ability.

In Memoriam.
ARNOLD. In loving remembrance of our beloved husband and father, THOMAS ARNOLD, who died one year ago today, April 2, 1915.
We shall never cease to love you, though your form be in the dust, and some day we hope to meet you. To this end in God we trust.
BY HIS WIFE, DAUGHTERS AND SON.

BURROWS. In sad and loving remembrance of our dear wife, mother and daughter, MINNA G. BURROWS, who entered into rest two years ago today, April 2, 1914.
There is such a sad, sad longing Deep down in our hearts today, To see once again our dear mother, Whom death has taken away.
And we often sit and wonder At what you are doing now, And how you are getting on, And how you are feeling now.
That have happened since that day, Oh, could you open up the grave And see the face once more, And hear the voice, that said we craved, And some day we hope to meet you.
BY HER HUSBAND AND CHILDREN:
Our hearts today are heavy, And our thoughts are for the dead, How we love and how we miss thee, None but God in heaven can see.
BY MAMMA AND PAPA.

FLYNN. In sad and loving remembrance of my dear father, JOHN J. FLYNN, who died two years ago today, April 2, 1914. Anniversary mass at St. Martin's Church, Washington, D. C., April 2, 1916.

In Memoriam.

JOHNSON. In sad and loving remembrance of my dear wife, ANNE JOHNSON, who died April 2, 1913.
This world can never give The bliss for which I sigh, 'Tis not the whole of life to live, Nor all of death to die.
BY HER DEVOTED HUSBAND, JOHN S. JOHNSON, HIS FRIEND, JOHN R. STRATTON.

MALLOY. In sad but loving remembrance of my dear daughter and our sister, ELLA MALLOY, who departed this life one year ago today, April 2, 1915.
BY HER MOTHER, SISTER AND BROTHER.

MORELL. In sad but loving remembrance of our husband and grandpa, AVOLPE MORELL, who departed this life thirteen years ago today, April 2, 1903.
"God is not forgotten."
BY HIS WIFE AND GRANDDAUGHTER.

PADGETT. In loving remembrance of my dear mother, ELIZABETH R. PADGETT, who died sixteen years ago today, April 2, 1900.
When hearts and flesh O Lord, shall fail, Thou wilt be spirit cheer; Support us through the dreary vale, And some day we shall meet thee.
BY
